

Consumer Mortgage Education

If you are buying your first home or you are a current homeowner taking out a new mortgage; the process can be a stressful thing in today's market place. The Illinois Association of Mortgage Professionals believes you, the consumer, need to know how the mortgage process works to ensure that your loan process is treated with integrity. With knowledge, you can make sure that your new mortgage is right for you and your family. This "Consumer Mortgage Education Program" will give you insight and knowledge of the mortgage business in detail helping you to secure the right mortgage and help you choose to work with the right mortgage person.

Courses:

- Knowing the Disclosures
- Credit Score and You
- First Time Home Buyer Seminar
- Mortgage Programs - What Is The Best For You

Our Instructors

All of our instructors have vast industry experience which includes Mortgage Banking, Brokering and Consumer Finance. We offer expertise and commitment to remaining current on industry changes. They are recognized for their ability to pass on knowledge in a unique, user-friendly fashion. Our instructors can simplify complex concepts without changing the meaning or definition. All of our material is trusted and referenced by seasoned professionals. Each instructor is an active member of the IAMP and our national broker association.

Call the IAMP office for more information about our educational programs 630.916.7720.

education